PETER AND THE STAR CATCHER
A Grownup’s Prequel to Peter Pan

STUDY GUIDE
Ever wondered how to put on a play?

There are many different elements that go into putting a show up on its feet. Please review the following with your students:

PLAYWRIGHT The playwright writes the script.

DIRECTOR The director is in charge of orchestrating the entirety of the production. They lead the actors, designers, and production crew to put the show on its feet.

COSTUME What the actors wear during the show.

SCENERY Everything on stage (except props) used to represent the place at which action is occurring.

PROPS All physical items on stage with the exception of the scenery. This includes lamps, chairs, pens, paper, books, and more!

LIGHTS Stage lights illuminate the actors so that they look their best. The colors used, focus of the light, and amount of lighting can really set the mood and environment of a scene.

SOUND Everything that you hear during a performance that does not come from the actors.

THEATRE 101

ACTORS The actors are the people that perform the show onstage.

AUDIENCE The lucky people that get to watch the show. New to being an audience member? Follow these rules and you will be a natural!

AUDIENCE RULES

- Unlike a movie, the actors are performing in front of you. They can see everything that you do. Talking, sleeping, poking your neighbor, or making noise during the performance distracts the actors and others around you.
- Don’t bring electronics to the performance. The use of cell phones, cameras, computers, tablets, and video game devices are not allowed.
- Use your better judgment on when to laugh, clap, and/or cry during the performance. But don’t forget to clap at the end of the show!
- Stay in your seat during the performance.
- Make sure you go to the bathroom before the show starts.
IT'S HOT SEAT TIME!

A story can change depending on who tells it. You've gotten to a chance to meet the characters in Peter and the Starcatcher and learn about their personality traits throughout the story. Now it's your turn to become the characters by expressing their viewpoints in words and styles that you help to create!

STEP 1: Set up a “hot seat”, which is a single chair in front of your classroom.

STEP 2: One by one, each member of your class should take a turn in the “hot seat”. When it’s your turn, choose one of the characters from Peter and the Starcatcher and introduce yourself in the voice and manner of the character you have chosen.

STEP 3: Find an important event from Peter and the Starcatcher and ask the “characters” in the “hot seat” questions about how these events affect them.

SAMPLE SCENE

MOLLY: Those little bits are starstuff. The trunk in Slank’s cabin is full of it. There’s some in here too, in case I’m ever in trouble.

BOY: Starstuff?? Lemme see!!

MOLLY: NO!! It changes people if they touch it.

BOY: How?

MOLLY: Different ways, depending on what they want to be.

BOY: So if somebody gets their hands on this starstuff and

MOLLY: and they’re evil and greedy like Genghis Khan, or they’re hungry for world domination like Caesar or Napoleon or, you know, Ayn Rand

BOY: Who’s that?

MOLLY: Uch, didn’t you learn anything at that orphanage?

BOY: Was kinda busy trying not to die.

MOLLY: Oh.

BOY: So if starstuff’s so dangerous, why’re you after it?

MOLLY: I’m a Starcatcher. We have special powers that we use in secret, to keep starstuff away from tyrants who try to rule the world.

BOY: You mean, like Queen Victoria?

MOLLY: God Save Her. And no, that’s different. She doesn’t need starstuff to rule the world. She’s British.

BOY: So you’re a, what is it?

MOLLY: Starcatcher. There’s only six and a half of us on the planet.

BOY: Six and a half?

MOLLY: I’m still an apprentice.

BOY: Okay, so prove it.

MOLLY: What?

BOY: Go on, amaze me with your special powers.

MOLLY: It’s not a magic show. I’m not like some magician guy.

BOY: Well, I mean if you can’t actually do anything...

MOLLY: Fine, whatever. To have faith is to have wings.

ACTIVITY: SEEING THE WORLD IN DIFFERENT WAYS in the HOT SEAT!

DIRECTIONS

Give students a chance to act out a scene from Peter and the Starcatcher Before jumping into the performance, think about all of the elements that go into a play. Are there any props that we can use to help improve the scene? Where are the characters when this scene is taking place? What might the scenery look like?

FOLLOW-UP

- After students have interviewed several “characters”, discuss how the characters’ viewpoints differed. How were they alike?

VARIATIONS:

- Instead of acting out the characters’ viewpoints, write about them in diary entries.

- How would the characters respond to events in your life? How would they respond to current events happening today?
FIRST IMPRESSIONS

- When Molly first meets Peter, she sees him as a lowly orphan boy whose first impression isn’t very charming. She later discovers his true heroic nature. Theatre has many first impressions.
- What were your first impressions of the characters in Peter and the Starcatcher? Did your opinion change throughout the show? Consider what happened to change your opinion.
- WRITE a few words about each character, below, describing your first impression when they were introduced in the play and then write a few words describing if your impression changed as you learned more throughout the show.

MOLLY: __________________________________________________________________________________

BOY (PETER): _____________________________________________________________________________

SLANK: __________________________________________________________________________________

STUDENT ACTIVITY: SPACE JUMP!

Peter and the Starcatcher has many scenes set in various locations throughout the play—this classic Improvisational game allows young actors to jump in and out of various scenes while maintaining character.

1. Four students go up on stage.

2. Number the students 1-4

3. The student who is number 1 comes onto the stage. The audience thinks of a scenario for student 1. For example he/she may be in a zoo.

4. Student number 1 then begins an improvisation about the given scenario. When you feel it has gone on enough, usually about 20 seconds you call Space Jump!

5. Student 1 then freezes and student 2 comes on stage. They use the pose student 1 is frozen in to inspire a new scene.

6. The two actors then continue on until again you feel it has been long enough and again call Space Jump!

7. This same process happens for students 3 and 4.

8. Once the final scene, which should have all 4 students in, has been going for enough time you again call Space Jump! Student 4 then leaves the scene and the scene reverts to what the 3 students were doing before.
DISCUSSION
A story has a beginning, a middle, and an end, but a character's life goes on after the last page, or after the curtain falls. What DOES Peter Pan do?

DIRECTIONS
- What happens after the curtain falls?
- Draw or write a story describing what happens to the characters after the end of the play.
